UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Defendant has requested to reduce his 10-year sentence, for which he is anticipated to be released on May 29, 2029, to a sentence of home confinement. Upon due consideration, the Court finds that Defendant has not met his burden of showing that extraordinary and compelling reasons warrant such a reduction.

Defendant is 46 years old. Although he has been diagnosed with hypertension, hypercholesterolemia, and a mental health disorder (anxiety), the BOP medical records reflect that Defendant is being treated for these conditions, which were known of when Defendant was sentenced. The Court has considered the nature and circumstances of Defendant's offense, his history and characteristics, the kinds of sentences available, and the kinds of sentence and the sentencing range established by the Guidelines. The Court also considered the other applicable § 3553(a) factors and finds that the requested reduction would undermine the objectives and purposes of Defendant's sentence, particularly its need to reflect the seriousness of the offense, promote respect for the law, provide just punishment, afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct, protect the public from Defendant, and avoid unwarranted sentence disparities.

Defendant's Motion for Reduction of Sentence Pursuant to section 603 of the First Step Act Compassionate Release, ECF No. 143, is DENIED.
